Kenſington, July 29.

THE following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Sterling, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. James Erskine, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Sterling.

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council, as repreſenting the Community of your Royal Burgh of Sterling, beg Leave, with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction, to expreſs their moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations to your ſacred Majeſty, on the happy Succeſs that has attended your Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, your Majeſty's Son, in overthrowing, at the Battle of Culloden, the preſumptuous Attempts of ſuch of your rebellious and fatally deluded Subjects, as inſolently and ungratefully preſumed to riſe in Arms againſt your Majeſty's indulgent and mild Government, in Aid of the foreign Enemies of their native Country, under the diſhonourable Conduct of the Son of a popiſh Pretender to an indefeaſible Right from Heaven, of reducing your Majeſty's free-born Subjects of Great Britain to the Condition of Slaves, ſubject to an unlimited Power over their Lives and Fortunes, and incapable of enjoying private Property ſafe from his arbitrary Demands; and at the ſame time profeſſing, by the Principles of his Religion, to ſubvert the Crown of Great Britain to the Authority of a foreign Power, in the moſt ſacred religious Concerns of the Nation, and joining with the French King, the natural and irreconcileable Enemy to the Liberty of theſe Kingdoms, in Meaſures and Councils directly tending to enſlave this Iſland, and all Europe, to his inſatiable Ambition.

We beg Leave likewiſe to expreſs our moſt thankful Acknowledgements to your ſacred Majeſty, for the conſpicuous Mark of Royal Favour ſhown to our Country, in ſending his Royal Highneſs to be our Deliverer from the Calamities under which we were oppreſſed by the Rebels, until his Royal Highneſs, by his vigorous and prudent Conduct, overcame the Difficulties ariſing from the Rigours of the Winter Seaſon, and a pillaged and waſted Country; and drove his rebellious Enemies, aſſiſted by a foreign Force, to the remote Northern Parts of the Iſland, and there gave them a total Defeat in a pitched Battle, with a moſt inconſiderable Loſs of your Majeſty's Troops under his auſpicious Command. We cannot however but regrate, that when we are again, by his Royal Highneſs's indefatigable Labours, reſtored to the Enjoyment of Peace, Quiet and Safety at Home, the incurable Obſtinacy of our rebellious Countrymen ſhould ſtill oblige his Royal Highneſs to ſubmit, on our Account, to the Fatigues and Toils of reſiding in the midſt of a mountainous, barren, waſted Country. No Wonder that Language ſhould fail in furniſhing us with Words apt for expreſſing our Gratitude for Favours ſo uncommon and ſo rarely the Subject of Thought or Diſcourſe.

We cannot pretend ſo much as to be able to make, on our Part, Returns to your Majeſty ſuitable to ſo diſtinguiſhed Favours; but we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ever ſhall, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, contribute to defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, againſt all your Enemies foreign and domeſtick.

Signed in Preſence and by Appoinment of Council.

William Danskin, D. G.

Conſtantinople, June 24. On the 22d paſt the Kiſlar Aqau, or Chief Black Eunuch, died in a very advanced Age. Since his Death many of the great Officers of the Court have been changed. It is reported that the new Capitan Baſhaw died of an Apoplexy, in his Voyage to the Archipelago. On the 13th Inſtant M. Carlſon, the Swediſh Envoy, departed from hence with his Family, to return to Sweden by Land. We have no News of any Moment from Perſia.

Vienna,

Vienna, July 23, N. S. Count Brown having left the King of Sardinia with the Remainder of the Combined Army to guard the Trebia, was on the 21ſt or 22d, to paſs the Po at Arena, and the Lambro, at or about St. Columbino, with a combined Body of 16 Auſtrian, and 14 Piedmonteſe Battalions, three Auſtrian and three Piedmonteſe Regiments of Cavalry, and 1000 Irregulars, while General Roth, with a Body of 12 Auſtrian Battalions, two Regiments of Horſe, and ſome Huſſars, was to operate about Soncino, Orci Novi, and Orci Vecchi, upon the Oglio, and from thence to the Adda, in order to join Count Brown, and to inveſt the Spaniards which are at Lodi, Codogno, Fombio, Guarda Meglio, &c. during which time General Nadaſti was to be poſted at or about Fiorenzuolo, upon the Emilian Way, with about 8000 Huſſars and regular Cavalry.

Berlin, July 26. The King of Pruſſia ſet out this Morning for Sileſia, attended only by Prince Ferdinand his Brother, Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, Major General Borck, Major General Winterfeld, his Aid de Camps, Buddenbrock and Lentulus, and Major Jaſſau. Count Stolberg proceeded laſt Night to the Principality of Javer, in order to ſee if it is worth while to work ſome Mines which were formerly diſcovered in thoſe Parts. His Pruſſian Majeſty intends to examine them himſelf, to viſit all his Fortifications, and ſome Manufactures newly eſtabliſh'd, and to inſpect the Adminiſtration and Trade in general in that Dutchy, and to be back, tho' it is calculated the Tour will be of 158 German Miles, by the 12th of next Month. M. Woronzow intends to purſue his Journey to Petersbourg the 28th Inſtant. M. Podewils deliver'd him laſt Night a Preſent from his Pruſſian Majeſty of a Gold hilted Sword ſet with Diamonds. Poſt Horſes will be provided him gratis.

At the Camp at Borckloch, July 27, N. S.

Since my laſt of the 24th Inſtant, our Army has made two Marches, the firſt to Sandhoven, and the ſecond to this Place; we halt To-morrow, and then proceed towards Namur, and hope to be in time for the ſaving of that Town. We have taken Poſſeſſion of Arſchott, and Lewe, whilſt the French poſſeſſed themſelves of Halen and Dieſt. Their Army remains behind Lovain, where they are aſſembling all the Force they can; whether with a Reſolution to attack us, or in Expectation of being attacked, two Days will determine.

At the Camp of the Allied Army at Viler, Auguſt 3, N. S.

Count Daun has been detached ever ſince the 26th with 10,000 Men upon our Right Flank: General Trips, with a Corps of Huſſars and Pandours, is advanced a little March from him upon his Right Flank. And Baronai, with another Corps and our Free Companies, is half a March in the Rear of Count Daun, upon his Right Flank alſo; every Party of the Enemy that ſhews itſelf is attacked, and generally with Succeſs. The 1ſt Inſtant we paſſed the Mahaigne in Six Columns, and marched in Order of Battle, the Cannon at the Head of each Battalion, and encamped our Right at Waſſeige, our Left towards Longechamp and Oſtin, Count Daune between Athe and St. Germains, General Trips at Athe, and the Pandours advanced to St. Denis; Count Lowendahl was then at Judoigne with 14000 Men; Count Clermont between that and Tirlemont with 10000, 1500 in Gemblours, the French Grand Army ſtill behind Louvain, raiſing Redoubts, &c. They are called 80000, and the whole is believed to be 130000 Men. An Hour after our Arrival on this Side the Mehaigne, the Marſhal had Advice that Count Lowendahl had marched to Gemblours and Sombref with all his Corps; that Marſhal de Saxe, by very forced Marches, was come from Louvain to Conroy and the Seven Stars; and that the Prince of Conti had made a Detachment from Charleroy to reinforce him. Upon this, our Corps de Reſerve was immediately ordered to march to ſupport Count Daun; and Prince Charles, with the other Generals in Chief, went the next Morning with all the Grenadiers to St. Denis, about a Mile from Count Lowendahl's Body, to ſee if it was poſſible to attack him; but they found him cover'd by the River of Gemblours, Woods, and large Redoubts, at which they had worked all Night, and alſo ſupported by Count Saxe's whole Army, and therefore the Deſign was not practicable. Charleroy has ſurrendered in leſs than three Days from the opening of the Trenches before it. The Enemy are now within Sight of us at the ſtrong Camp of Gemblours, and the Prince of Conti at Fleurus. A Battery is to be planted this Night to diſlodge them from the Caſtle of Mazy. Namur is out of all Danger of being beſieg'd. Yeſterday Morning the Huſſars took 60 Men and 5 Officers Priſoners, and kill'd 40. Another Party kill'd 300 French Pandours, Deſerters from our Army; and brought into St. Denis alſo another Party of 40 Swiſs, taken within Muſket Shot of the French Camp.

Hague, Aug. 2, N. S. By our laſt Accounts, Prince Charles's Head Quarters were on the 29th paſt at Warem, near Liege. We hear that the French have ſent off all their heavy Baggage to Bruſſels. This Step, and the Poſition of the two Armies, raiſe the greateſt Expectations of the next News from that Quarter; tho' the Return of the French King is fix'd at but the 10th Inſtant. Letters of the 19th paſt from the Auſtrian Army upon the Po, confirm the Junction and joint Commands having taken Place on the 16th; and add, that every thing was prepared for entering upon Action; two Bridges having been thrown by his Sardinian Majeſty over the Po below, and two above Placentia. Our Advices from Paris ſay poſitively, that the Breſt Fleet and Tranſports are ſail'd for America.

Hague, Auguſt 5, N. S. The Letters of the 23d paſt from the Combined Army upon the Trebia, ſpeak of the Preparations ſtill continuing for its paſſing the Po; and fix the 25th ditto for the Execution of it.
